

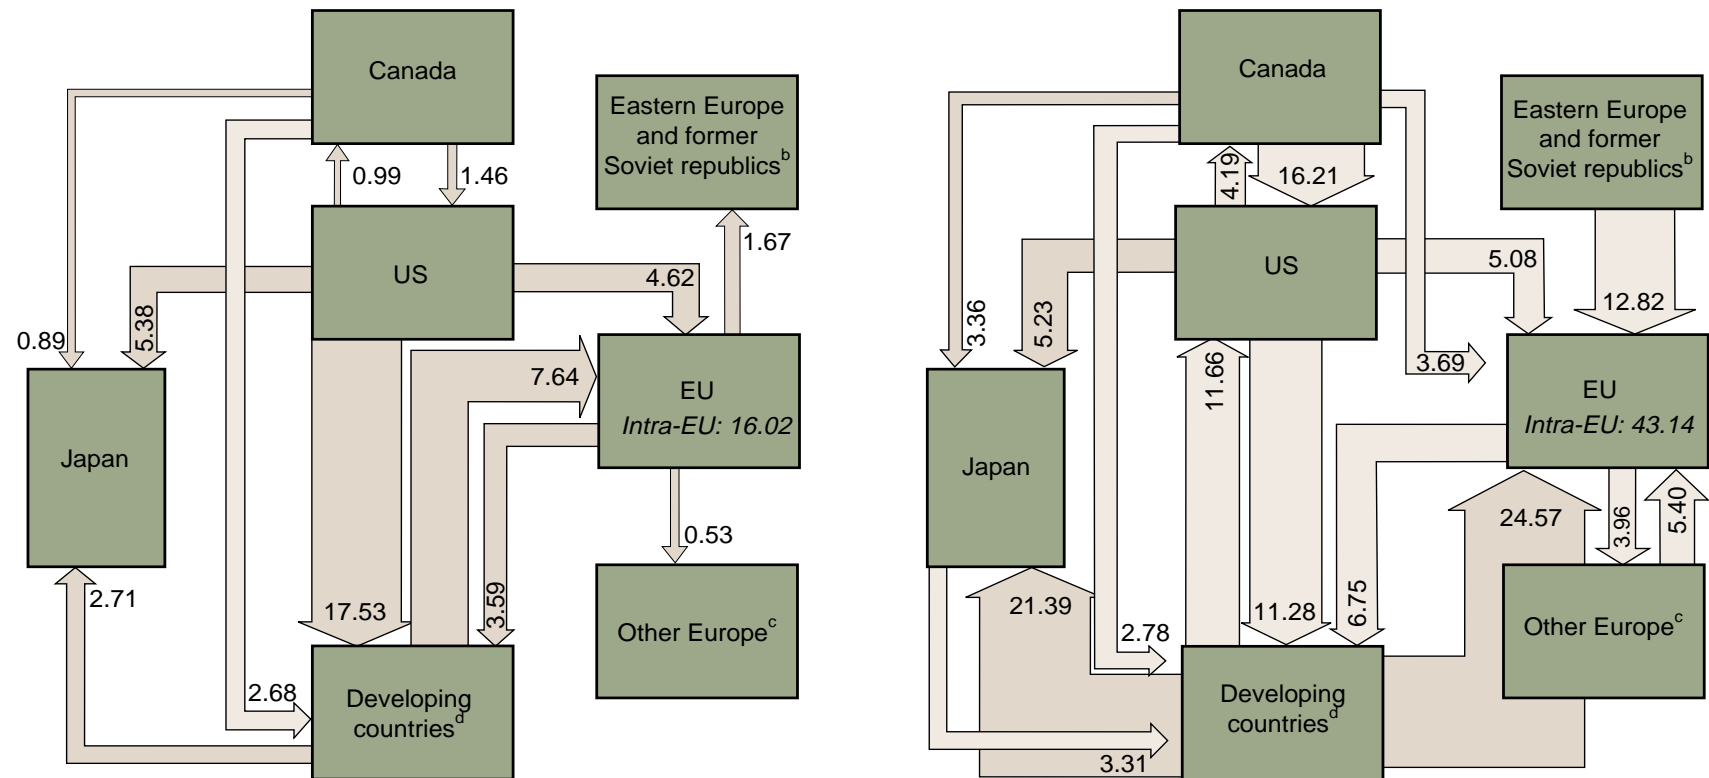

Figure 24
Global Trade Flows: Grain and Feed and Raw Materials, 1996

Billion US $

Grain and Feed^a

Raw Materials^e

^aIncluding wheat, corn, rice, other cereals, feedgrains, and soybeans.

^bIncluding Albania, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Slovakia, and former Soviet republics.

^cIncluding Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, and Switzerland.

^dIncluding Western Hemisphere other than the United States and Canada; Africa and the Middle East; South Asia; and East Asia other than Japan.

^eIncluding unwrought copper, aluminum, nickel, zinc, and tin, and ores thereof; iron ore and pig iron; uranium ore and alloys, other nonferrous ores, unwrought metals, and crude minerals; crude rubber, wood and pulp; hides; cotton fiber and other textile fibers; crude animal and vegetable materials.

Note: Width of arrows scaled to dollar volume. \Rightarrow = $1 billion. Generally, trade flows less than $500 million not shown for grains/feed; trade flows less than $2 billion not shown for nonoil commodities.